Mr. President:

Your Committee on Rules and Order of Business, to which was referred the matter of the employment of official stenographers for the Constitutional Convention, with authority to contract for such work, begs leave to report as follows:

Bids have been received from three parties. Mr. W. D. O'Neal of Phoenix, Arizona, Mr. W. N. Tiffany of Los Angeles, California, and Mr. J. A. Larrabee of Tucson, Arizona. Your Committee recommends the acceptance of the amended bid of Mr. Larrabee as being the lowest and best of those submitted. Mr. Larrabee proposes to be the official stenographer for the Constitutional Convention at a per diem of $25.00 and will furnish four (4) copies daily of a transcript of the proceedings of the Convention at five cents per folio for each copy. The work will require at least three expert reporters and at times three expert operators.

Respectfully submitted,
MULFORD WINSOR,
Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Winsor the report was adopted and the Committee on Rules empowered and instructed to enter into a contract with J. A. Larrabee, for the performance of the work outlined.

Report of committee on Rules and Procedure was as follows:

Mr. President:

Your special Committee on Rules and Order of Business beg leave to recommend the following as the standing rules of this Convention:

Respectfully submitted,
MULFORD WINSOR,
Chairman.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF ARIZONA.
STANDING RULES.

Rule 1. Unless otherwise ordered, the Convention shall convene at 9 o'clock a. m., take recess from 12 o'clock noon until 2 o'clock p. m., and adjourn at 5 o'clock p. m.

Rule 2. The President shall take the chair exactly at the hour first named in Rule 1, or in the event of a special order, the hour to which the Convention shall have adjourned, call the members to order, and cause the roll to be called.

If a quorum be present, the business of the Convention shall be disposed of in the following order:

(a) Prayer by the Chaplain.
(b) Reading of the Minutes.
(c) Petitions, Memorials and Remonstrations.
(d) Reports of standing committees.
(e) Reports of selected committees.
(f) Introduction of Propositions.
(g) The Order of the Day.
(i) The Committee of the Whole.
(j) Second reading of Propositions.
(k) Third reading of Propositions.
(l) Business lying on the President's desk.
(m) Other business of the Convention.

Rule 3. A majority of the delegates elected to the Convention shall constitute a quorum. In all cases of absent members during the sessions, the members present may take such measures as they may deem necessary to secure the presence of absentees, and may inflict such penalty as they may deem just upon those who, on being called on for that purpose, shall not render sufficient excuse for their absence.

Rule 4. Members and officers of the Convention are required to be constantly in attendance upon the duties of their position, and leave of absence to such will only be granted by vote of the Convention.

Rule 5. The President shall, upon each day, announce to the Convention the business in order, agreeably to the order of business contained in Rule 2; and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs shall be declared to be in order, nor after the order to which it belongs is closed.

Rule 6. The unfinished business in which the Convention was engaged at the time of the last adjournment or recess, shall have preference in orders of the day, and shall continue to be among the orders of the day for each succeeding day until disposed of in any other manner by a majority vote.

Rule 7. Communications from the Governor or Secretary of the Territory may be received, read and disposed of at any time except when the President is putting the question or while the ayes and nays are being called.

Rule 8. In case the President shall be absent at the hour to which the Convention was adjourned, the Convention shall choose one of its members as President pro tem.

Rule 9. The President shall have the right to name a member to perform the duties of the Chair temporarily, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

Rule 10. The President shall preserve decorum and order; may speak to points of order in preference to other members; shall decide all points of order, subject to an appeal to the Convention, and may vote in all cases except to determine his own rulings.

Rule 11. The President shall declare all votes, but when a vote, having been declared by him, is doubted, the members for or against the question, when called on by the President, shall rise and stand until they are counted, and the vote made certain without any further debate, but a call for the ayes and nays shall be in order at any time before such vote is made certain and declared.

Rule 12. Any petition, memorial, or other paper addressed to the Convention shall be presented by the President, or a member in his place, and shall be endorsed with the name of the person presenting it, and the subject matter of the same. It shall be read by the President, Secretary or such other person as the President may request, and shall be taken up in the order in which it was first presented, unless the Convention shall otherwise direct.

Rule 13. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the Minutes of each days' proceedings and to provide a typewritten copy of the same for the use of the President. He shall each day prepare a calendar of the orders and business of the day, and a like calendar for the committee of the whole, and shall cause to be placed on the desk of each member, at or before the hour of convening, a typewritten copy of the same. He shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Convention or by the President.

Rule 14. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant at Arms to attend the Convention during its sitting, preserve order in the corridor and gallery, execute all processes issued by authority of the Convention and directed to him by the President; give notice of all messages and carry all messages the Convention may require. When requested to call a member of the Convention, he shall do so by name.

Rule 15. It shall be the duty of all employees of the Convention to attend all sittings thereof, and to attend at the Convention Chamber at other hours if required to do so, and to perform such duties as may be assigned them. They shall be under direct supervision and direction of the Committee on Printing and Clerks, and subject to reprimand or discharge for incompetence, misconduct or insubordination.

Rule 16. When any member desires to speak, debate, deliver any matter to the Convention, make or second a motion, he shall arise from his seat and respectfully address himself to "Mr. President," who shall recognize him as "The Gentleman from .... County," Mr.....................". He shall confine himself to the question, or to subject matter properly in order, avoid personalities, and shall not impeach the motives of any other member's vote or argument.

Rule 17. In all cases the member who shall first arise and address the chair shall speak first, but when two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall name the person to speak.

Rule 18. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to call to order or to correct a mistake.

Rule 19. No member shall be permitted to stand up to the interruption of another while any member is speaking, or pass unnecessarily between the President of the Convention and the person speaking; nor shall any member, employee or other person be permitted to stand in the aisles during the sessions of the Convention.

Rule 20. Any motion shall be reduced to writing if required by the President or any other member.

Rule 21. Any member may ask for the statement of the question which the President shall give standing.

Rule 22. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 23. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in the possession of the Convention, but it may be withdrawn by leave of the Convention at any time before a decision is announced or amendment is made.

Rule 24. The President shall propound all questions in the order in which they shall be moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature, except that in filling blanks, and in assigning times for the consideration of business, the smallest sum or percentage and the longest time shall be preferred.

Rule 25. A motion to adjourn and a motion to lay on the table shall be always in order, except when a motion for the previous question is pending, at which time neither can be repeated until the motion for the previous question is disposed of, without the unanimous consent of the Convention. And these motions shall be decided without debates.

Rule 26. The President shall put the previous question in the following form: "Shall the main question now be put?" and all amendements or further debate of the main question shall be suspended until the previous question shall be decided; and the previous question shall not be put unless seconded by three members. And a call for the ayes and nays shall be in order after the main question has been ordered to be put. After the adoption of the previous question, the vote shall forthwith be taken upon amendments in the order presented and then upon the main question.

Rule 27. When a motion or question has been once put and a decision rendered by the chair, it shall be in order for any member who voted in the majority, or when the Convention is equally divided, for a member who voted in the negative, to move for a reconsideration thereof, on the same or succeeding day, and such motion shall take precedence over all other questions, except a motion to lay on the table, a motion for reconsideration, or a motion to adjourn. A motion for reconsideration being put and lost, it shall not be renewed on the same day, but such motion for reconsideration may be renewed on the succeeding day, and not thereafter.

Rule 28. Any member may call for a division of a question which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Convention. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendments nor motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 29. Every member who shall be within the bar of the Convention when question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Convention, for special reasons, shall excuse him, and when the yeas and nays are ordered, no member shall leave his seat until the vote is declared.

Rule 30. A member who is not within the bar of the Convention when a vote is taken upon any question, shall not be allowed to vote on that question, except by consent of the Convention.

Rule 31. The yeas and nays shall be ordered upon the request of any member, but a call of the Convention shall not be made without the consent of eight members.

Rule 32. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under the color of an amendment, as a substitute for the motion or question under debate.

Rule 33. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but:

(a) To adjourn.

(b) To lay on the table.
(c) For the previous question.
(d) To commit to committee of the Whole.
(e) To commit to standing committee.
(f) To commit to select committee.
(g) To amend.
(h) To postpone to a certain day.
(i) To postpone indefinitely.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged.

Rule 34. The following questions shall be undebatable:

(a) Motion to adjourn.
(b) Motion to lay on table.
(c) Motion for the previous question.
(d) Motion to suspend a rule, or the rules.
(e) An appeal from the decision of the chair, when it relates to violations of the rules, or to disorder or to priority of business, or when the previous question was pending at the time the appeal was staken,
(f) Questions of order arising after an order is made for the previous question or upon debatable business.
(g) Questions relating to priority of business.

Rule 35. If any member in speaking or otherwise, shall transgress the Rules of the Convention, the President shall, or any member of the Convention may, call him to order, and the members called to order shall take his seat, if required to do so by the President, until a question of order is decided.

Rule 36. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by permission of the Convention, except the member appealing, who may speak twice.

Rule 37. Every question of order which shall be decided on appeal shall be entered on the minutes with the decision thereon.

Rule 38. If any member be called to order for words spoken in the debate, the member calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Secretary's table, and no member shall be held to answer or be subject to the censure of the Convention for words spoken in debate, if any other member has spoken or other business intervened after words are spoken, and before exception to them be taken.

Rule 39. When any member shall be guilty of a breach of any of the rules or order of the Convention and the Convention determine that he has so transgressed, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, except by way of excuse for the same, until he shall have made satisfaction.

Rule 40. Any member having obtained leave of absence, and having in his possession any papers relative to the business before the Convention, shall leave the same with the Secretary.

Rule 41. An interim between any two sessions of the Convention on the same day shall be called a recess; and on reassembling at the appointed hour any question pending at the time of taking such recess shall be resumed without motion to that effect.

Rule 42. All committees, except such as the Convention shall from time to time determine to select shall be named by the President.

Rule 43. Reports of Committees shall be considered in the order in which they have been presented to the Convention.

Rule 44. All reports of the Committees shall be signed by the members thereof who concur therein, except if the report be unanimous, it may be signed by the chairman alone.

Rule 45. All committee reports shall be presented by the chairman of the respective committees or by a member thereof properly authorized.

Rule 46. Propositions, resolutions or other matters referred to any committee, may, at the discretion of the Convention be withdrawn therefrom and placed before the Convention for its consideration at any time,

Rule 47. When the Convention shall go into Committee of the Whole, the President shall appoint the member who shall take the chair.

Rule 48. The same rules shall be observed in Committee of the Whole as in the Convention, so far as the same are applicable, except that the previous question shall not apply, nor the yeas and nays be taken, nor a limit be made as to the number of times a member may speak.

Rule 49. In Committee of the Whole proposition shall be read by the chairman and considered item by item, unless otherwise directed by the committee, leaving the preambles, if any, last to be considered. The body of the propositions shall not be defaced or interlined, but amendments shall be noted by the chairman or secretary upon a separate piece of paper, and so reported to the Convention.

Rule 50. There shall be a special calendar for the Committee of the Whole, on which shall be placed all propositions and other matters which by order of the Convention or under these rules are referred to such committee. Every proposition shall be considered and acted upon in the Committee of the Whole in its order upon the calendar.

Rule 51. A motion for the Committee of the Whole to rise and report progress shall be in order at any stage and shall be decided without debate.

Rule 52. All matters intended to become a part of the Constitution shall be presented by a member of the Convention or one of the standing committees thereof, in the form of a proposition, and shall be in writing and in the following form:

A PROPOSITION
No.........................
Introduced by Mr..............................., of..............................County,
A Proposition relative to..
It is hereby proposed:

Rule 53. The regular order to be taken by Propositions introduced in the Convention shall be as follows:

(a) Upon introduction a Proposition shall be read first time in full, whereupon the President shall announce, First reading of the Proposition,"

(b) Unless otherwise ordered the Proposition shall be referred to the Committee on Printing and Clerks. In the absence of a contrary motion, there shall be printed five hundred copies of each Proposition. Within two days, exclusive of the day of reference, the Proposition shall be reported back to the Convention, together with the printed copies thereof.

(c) The Proposition shall be read a second time in full, whereupon the President shall announce, "Second reading of the Proposition," and shall refer it to an appropriate standing committee. The committee to which the Proposition shall be so referred shall examine the same, and within eight days, exclusive of the day of reference, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, the chairman of the committee or a member thereof authorized to do so, shall return the Proposition and present the committee's recommendations. All the amendments proposed by the committee shall be clearly set out in the committee's report by specific reference to the Proposition, or section or sections to be amended, together with the words proposed to be stricken out, inserted or substituted, and said report shall be accompanied by a copy of the proposition, section or sections, as it or they would read if amended as recommended.

(d) The Proposition shall be placed upon the calendar of the Committee of the Whole in the order in which it shall have been reported to the Convention, which position it shall continue to occupy on the calendars of the Committee of the Whole and of the Convention, until finally disposed of; except, that a proposition may be recommitted to the same or a different committee at any time previous to its final disposition, in which event, if any amendment be reported, the Proposition shall be subject to the same procedure as when reported by the committee to which it was originally committed.

(e) When a Proposition shall have been examined and reported by the Committee of the Whole it shall be placed on the Calendar of the Convention under the head of Order of the Day in the order in which reported by the Committee of the Whole. The question shall be, first, upon the adoption of the reports, respectively, of the Committee of the Whole and the standing committee which examined the proposition; second, if the Proposition be not amended, "Shall the Proposition have a third reading?" or if there be amendments, "Shall the Proposition be engrossed and have a third reading?" and if decided in the affirmative, it shall be placed upon the calendar in its proper order. A proposition ordered engrossed shall be referred to the Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation for engrossment.

(f) So soon as any entire Proposition shall have been adopted, such Proposition shall be referred to the Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation. The committee shall have power to revise the language used in the interest of grammatical excellence, uniformity, and consistency, but must not in any way destroy the sense of the Convention.

(g) The Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation having completed its revision shall report the Proposition to the Convention, within two days, exclusive of the day of reference, when the revised proposition shall be read in full and the question shall be on the adoption of the Propositions so revised. If the same shall be decided in the affirmative the Proposition shall be again reported to the Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation, to be by that Committee embodied in its proper place in the Constitution.

(h) At a reasonable time, to be determined by the Convention, at least eight days before final adjournment, the Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation shall report to the Convention all Propositions adopted and submitted to it as heretofore provided, carefully revised, arranged and compiled into a complete Constitution for the State of Arizona, and the same shall be printed and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

(i) The report of the Committee of the Whole on the completed Constitution shall be acted upon by the Convention and the Constitution considered section by section, and no Proposition shall be embodied in the Constitution or become a part thereof without it receives the approval by an aye and nay vote of a majority of the majority of the members elected to the Constitutional Convention.

(j) After being so adopted section by section, and as a whole, the compiled Constitution shall be again referred to the Committee on Style, Revision and Compilation to be accurately engrossed and enrolled and the same shall be reported by said committee to the Convention at a date to be determined by the Convention at least two days before final adjournment.

When reported by the Committee on Style, Revision, and Compilation shall be read in full, and prior to final adjournment of the Convention shall be submitted to a final vote. Upon such reading no amendments shall be permitted.

(k) After such final passage the Constitution shall be signed by the President and all the members of the Convention.

Rule 54. All proposed action touching the rules and order of business, shall be referred, as of course, to the Committee on Rules. Such Committee may sit during the session of the Convention without special leave, and report at any time upon rules, or order of business, so referred to it. It will be in order to call up for consideration at any time a report from the Committee on Rules. No other committee shall sit during a session of the Convention without special leave.

Rule 55. No Rule or order of the Convention shall be suspended, altered or repealed unless two-thirds of the members present shall consent thereto.

Rule 56. No rule or order of the Convention shall be altered or repealed, nor shall any new standing rule or order be adopted unless one day's previous notice thereof be given in each case, and such notice shall be entered on the minutes.

Rule 57. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Robert's Rules shall govern the Convention in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the Convention.

Rule 58. The Convention shall have twenty-four standing Committees as follows:

COMMITTEES FOR CONDUCTING THE CONVENTION.

Following communication read to the Convention:

Santa Fe, New Mexico, October 14, 1910.

Honorable Geo. W. P. Hunt,
President Constitutional Convention, Phoenix, Arizona.

On behalf of and under its direction by resolution unanimously adopted by the Constitutional Convention of New Mexico, I send the greetings of the delegates thereof to your Convention, and the best wishes of this Convntion for the highest degree of success in the great work you have undertaken in forming a government of, by and for the people.

(Signed) CHARLES A. SPIESS,
President Constitutional Convention of New Mexico.

The President announced that he had sent the following answer:

Phoenix, Arizona, October 15, 1910.

Hon. Charles A. Spiess,
President Constitutional Convention of New Mexico,
Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The Constitutional Convention of Arizona, now organized and in session, begs to express by unanimous vote its appreciation of the kind greetings received today from the Constitutional Convention of New Mexico, and to extend felicitations upon the common opportunity of New Mexico and Arizona to secure the high privilege of Statehood. Many of the interests of the two states will be similar, whatever the divergencies may be, and the Constitutional Convention of Arizona assures the Constitutional Convention of New Mexico of its confidence that New Mexico will do its share, as Arizona will do hers, to cooperate in the noble task of building up the great Southwest.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF ARIZONA,
GEO. W. P. HUNT,
President.

The following communication was read:

Tishomingo, Okla., October 12, 1910.

President Constitutional Convention,
Phoenix, Arizona,

Dear Sir: I can supply each member of your Convention with a free copy of the journals of the Oklahoma Constitutional Convention, provided the freight or express is paid by them. If desired please let me know.

Sincerely,
WM. H. MURRAY,
President Okla. Constitutional Convention.

Mr. Winsor moved, and Mr. Keegan seconded, that Secretary be instructed to make request for copies as offered sent by express; carried.

Mr. Doe asked that he be entered in the record as voting in the negative.

The following reply was sent to Mr. Murray:

Phoenix, Arizona, October 15, 1910.

Wm. H. Murray,
Tishomingo, Okla.

Dear Sir: We wired you today as follows:

"Kindly express, prepaid, fifty two copies of the Journal of the Oklahoma Constitution and render bill for the amount of the express charges and we will immediately remit."

The reason that we ask you to prepay at that end is because we understand it will be cheaper than for us to pay it at this end of the line.

The delegates of the Constitutional Convention of Arizona express their kindness for your thoughtfulness in presenting to us the Journals of the Oklahoma Convention free of charge. They will be of great value to us and we appreciate your kindness.

We have the honor of remaining,

Very respectfully,
A. W. COLE, GEO. W. P. HUNT,
Secretary. President.

Communication from W. M. Burke read and referred to Committee on Rules and Procedure. Communication as follows:

Phoenix, Arizona, October 22, 1910.

To the Constitutional Convention, Phoenix, Arizona.

"Gentlemen---It has been intimated that the recent action of the Convention, barring the representatives of the press from the floor of the Convention, was taken because of a mistaken apprehension that I had committed the offense of lobbying. I am glad to say that this is a misapprehension. But in order that the representatives of the press may not lose their privileges because of any prejudice existing against one of their number, I hereby voluntarily resign my rights as editor of the Arizona Issue and special correspondent of the Arizona Gazette to any privileges which may be accorded to the representatives of any other papers.

Respectfully yours,
"W. M. BURKE,
Editor the Arizona Issue."

Report of Mr. Wood, Chairman of the Committee on Finance, Accounts and Expense, adopted as follows:

Mr. President:

The Committee on Finance, Account and Expense in an endeavor to comply with a resolution directing them to examine and audit every item of expenditure connected with this Convention and report to the Convention at least weekly the financial condition of the Convention beg leave to submit the following report:

"That they were unable to obtain many items for audit on account of the fact that complete returns of election and other expenses have not been made to the office of the Secretary of Arizona, but that they were courteously furnished with the best estimates at present obtainable from said office, and the assurance that accurate data would be furnished from said office as soon as possible to do so and which in some instances would be several weeks.

Your Committee on Suffrage and Election begs leave to report it has examined Proposition No. 61 and respectfully recommends that it be adopted.

ALBERT M. JONES,
Chairman.

Phoenix, Arizona, October 29, 1910.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Suffrage and Election begs leave to report as follows:

1. That your Committee has thoroughly investigated and discussed the power of this Convention under the Enabling Act to provide that the officers be chosen at the first election of State and other officers shall be nominated by a direct primary.

2. That it is the opinion of your Committee that such a provision is within the power of this Convention.

3. That it is the opinion of your Committee that such direct primary should be required by this Convention and that in such direct primary and the election following, provision should be made whereby an advisory vote of the people shall be taken upon candidates for United States Senate.

4. That as the working out of these measures in detail will involve much effort upon a part of some member or members of the Convention and will require a considerable time, your Committee wishes first an expression of the opinion of this Convention upon the matters herein recommended.

Respectfully submitted,
ALBERT M. JONES,
Chairman.

The following telegram was read:

Prescott, Arizona, November 4, 1910.

Hon. Geo. W. P. Hunt,
Pres. Constitutional Convention,
Phoenix, Arizona.

The passage of the initiative and referendum proposition with popular percentages marks the beginning of an era of progress in the state government of Arizona. Arizona's star will now become a beacon light of welcome to the people of older commonwealths now struggling under the load of archaic and medieval constitutions.

J. J. SANDERS.

Phoenix, Arizona, November 19, 1910.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Judiciary begs leave to report it has examined Proposition No. 88 and respectfully recommends that said Proposition be amended to read as follows:

"The legislature or the people shall enact an equitable and sufficient employer's liability law or laws for the protection and safety of employees in all hazardous occupations. And recommend that same be adopted."

Your Committee further recommends that in the opinion of the majority of your Committee the above words will meet all necessary requirements and limitations. That section 2 of said Proposition No. 88 with the above Substitutes adopted would be surplussage. That sections 3, 4, and 5 are fully covered by other provisions adopted or under consideration.

D. L. CUNNINGHAM,
Chairman.

We concur: E. E. Ellinwood, A. F. Parsons, J. Weinberger, Fred L. Ingraham, A. C. Baker, Alfred Franklin.

Phoenix, Arizona, November 18, 1910.

Mr. President:

We, a minority of your Committee on Judiciary, beg leave to report we have examined Proposition No. 88 and respectfully recommend that sections 3 and 5 of said Proposition are covered by Proposition No. 50, section 4 by the report of the Committee on Labor. Section 1 and 2 should be adopted.

JAS. E. CRUTCHFIELD.

D. L. Cunningham, Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, made the following report:

Phoenix, Arizona, November 21, 1910.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Judiciary begs leave to report it has examined Proposition No. 50 as amended and respectfully recommends that said amended proposition No. 50 be further amended by striking out the last sentence to-wit: the words "any contract or argument to waive any right to recover damages for death or injury shall be void," for the reason said words if adopted in this Constitution would limit the rights of contract and deny to persons injured the equal protection of the law and therefore be in conflict with the Constitution of the United States and take away the liberty of the people if valid.

We further recommend that as amended said Proposition do pass.

D. L. CUNNINGHAM,
Chairman.

"Resolution No. 25. Whereas, under the terms of the Enabling Act, approved June 20, 1910, providing for the admission into the Union, on an equal footing with the other States, of Arizona and New Mexico, the Great Registers of the several counties of Arizona, as they at present appear shall constitute the Great Registers for the first election of State and county officers, members of the State Lgislature and Representative in Congress.

"And whereas, many hundreds of citizens of Arizona, possessing all the qualifications of electors save and except that their names will not appear upon the Great Register, as required by law, will be denied the right of suffrage.

And whereas, the said Great Registers, which were originally prepared in 1901, contain thousands of names or persons now deceased, or whose residences are no longer in Arizona, and many duplications.

And whereas, this condition of the said Great Registers will afford wide opportunity for the perpetration of frauds in the conduct of the aforesaid election, and on the other hand will work injustice to and hardship upon many loyal and intelligent citizens.

Therefore, Be it resolved, by the Constitutional Convention of Arizona in session assembled, that the Congress of the Uunited States be and hereby is petitioned to enact legislation authorizing a re-registration of the qualified electors of the Territory of Arizona, for the first election of State and County officers, members of the State Legislature and Representative in Congress; and

"Be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Territory be, and he hereby is requested to transmit a certified copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, and one each to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Territories, the Chairman of the House Committee on Territories, and to Hon.
